Fifty Dollars Reward,

For apprehending Richard Gotier,
WHO BROKE JAIL LAST NIGHT

HE was committed, on his own confession, of passing counterfeit checks; He is about 5 feet 7 inches high, fair complexion, light hair, grey eyes, very much pitted with the small pox, and a good deal round shouldered. He was a sailor in the United States' service; had a blue sailors' jacket and trowsers, a long blue coat, several white linen shirts, a pair of shoes, and a very good black hat.

The above reward will be given for apprehending and securing the said Gotier in any jail, and giving me information thereof.

Valuable Negroes for Sale.

I WILL offer at public sale, at Herndon's tavern, in the town of Fredericksburg, on FRIDAY, the second day of January next, if fair, if not, the next fair day, for cash;

Between 50 and 60 Negroes,

Lately attached to the Chatham estate, consisting of laborers and tradesmen, of different kinds, such as carpenters, blacksmiths, &c. &c. Also, a good miller, cook, gardener, trainer of horses, and some valuable house servants. They are, for the number, as likely and as valuable a set of negroes as any in Virginia: also, some work horses and farming utensils. Should any person in the neighborhood be disposed to purchase at private sale, prior to the said day, I will be ready to treat with them.

I will also sell, at Private Sale,

Some Lots in the town of Fredericksburg, my Lands adjoining Stafford court-house, my Lands in Westmoreland and Richmond counties, and my Farm called Clark's, on the Rappahannock river, about three miles below Fredericksburg.

The Place of Sale of the above property will be Bell's Tavern, in the town of Falmouth, where an agent will attend the two days preceding the day of sale, to treat with those who may wish to purchase at private sale.

LITTLE RIVER TURNPIKE ROAD.

As the completion of the Little River Turnpike Road is an object of primary importance to the people of Alexandria, and the country connected with it in commerce, the President and Directors deem it their duty to submit to the public the following statement of what has been effected, and what remains to be done to secure the accomplishment of this great work of public utility:—

THE first ten miles of the road having been paved, was submitted to the view of commissioners, agreeably to the terms of the LAW, who having approved the same, the governor of Virginia authorised the erection of turnpike gates thereon. Two gates have accordingly been erected, and tolls collected for some weeks past. In addition to this, the road has been opened, preparatory to paving, up to the Gum Spring road, about a mile from the Gum Spring.

THE total expenditure in the execution of the aforementioned work has been, Dollars, 43,320

Of which sum there has been paid for lands over which the road passes, and expences of condemnation,	2,467
For opening and clearing the road above the part completed, say,	2,500
For repairs of paved part of the road previous to the establishment of the gates,	1,000
For a machine for repairing road,	250
For ploughs and tools now on hand,	150
	6,367

The balance, 36,953 dollars, is, therefore, the cost of the ten miles of pavement, including the expence of a bridge built over Accotinck run, which sum is equal to 3698 dollars 30 cents per mile. It is here to be remarked, that the road already made passes over ground much more difficult and hilly than that which remains to be made; from which very considerable expences were incurred beyond what will be necessary in levelling any equal distance of the remainder of the road; the whole expence of making which cannot (it is believed) hereafter exceed the average cost of 2500 to 3000 dollars per mile. This opinion is further strengthened by the consideration that in the commencement of the work it was a business entirely new to all concerned in conducting it, but that experience has since greatly improved their skill and information upon the subject. The amount of the money for the shares subscribed having been thus expended, a new subscription must necessarily be opened immediately, when it is expected that the public spirit of the inhabitants of Alexandria, and of the counties westward thereof, will give an impulse to the work, that will produce a speedy accomplishment of this most desirable object. The amount of money received at the gates since their erection, fully warrants the opinion, that the stock, under all the present disadvantages attending the road, will produce a profit of ten per cent. per annum to the holder, and will, at a period not very distant, give an interest of fifteen per cent. which is the limitation to the profits fixed by law. This well founded expectation of profit will alone be a sufficient inducement to the mooied man to invest his capital in the stock; but when, in addition to this, the advantages to be expected from the road are duly appreciated by the agriculturalists who take their produce to Alexandria, and the merchants and tradesmen resident therein, assuredly every member of the community will feel it his interest and his duty to give the subscription his prompt and liberal aid.

THE people of Alexandria are not ignorant of the great efforts which the BALTIMOREANS are making, by means of turnpike roads, to attract to THEIR city, the whole trade of the back country; nor can any thing be more apparent, than that those efforts can be alone counteracted by similar exertions on the part of the ALEXANDRIANS.—The appeal to the landholder must be equally effectual, when he reflects on all the important advantages of an easy intercourse with his market town; and that the increased price of the produce of his lands will keep pace with the prosperity of the town, and that the price of the lands themselves will be consequently augmented far beyond the most sanguine expectations of any man unacquainted with the effect of those improvements in other parts of the United States.

Proceedings of Congress.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Wednesday, December 10.

Mr. Epps presented the petition of Peter Dupuy, which was referred to the committee of claims.

Mr. R. Nelson presented a petition from sundry inhabitants of Frederick county in Maryland, and Adams county in Pennsylvania, praying for a mail from Frederick town to Gettisburg, which was referred to the post-office committee.

Mr. R. Nelson also presented a petition from John Hargishimer, which was referred to the committee of claims.

On motion,

A committee of enrolment was appointed, composed of Messrs. T. M. Randolph and Porter.

On motion of Mr. Wilson, the petition of sundry inhabitants of Kenhaway county, Virginia, presented last session, praying for a new post road, was referred to the post office committee.

On motion of Mr. Thomas, the bill passed by the house at their last session, for the relief of certain British refugees from the provinces of Canada and Nova Scotia, was referred to a select committee composed of Messrs. Thomas, Wilson and Green.

On motion of Mr. Magruder, the petition of William Brawner, heretofore presented, was referred to the committee of claims.

Thursday, Dec. 11.

Mr. Holmes, from the committee of claims, made a report adverse to the petition of Joseph M'Craken, which the house considered—whereupon,

Resolved, That the prayer of the said petition ought not to be granted.

Mr. Clopton rose, and addressed the speaker in a speech of considerable length, which he concluded with the proposition of the following amendment to the constitution of the U. S.

Resolved by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, two thirds of both houses concurring, That the following article be submitted to the legislatures of the several states, which when ratified and confirmed by the legislatures of three fourths of the said states, shall be valid and binding as a part of the constitution of the U. States:

The last clause of the 8th section of the 1st article of the constitution which contains the following words: "to make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers, and all other powers vested by this constitution in the government of the U. S. or in any department or officer thereof," shall be construed so as to comprehend only such laws as shall have a natural connection with and immediate relation to the powers enumerated in the said section, or to such other powers as are expressly vested by this constitution in the government of the U. S. or in any department or officer thereof.

The house immediately considered the said amendment and referred it a committee of the whole on the state of the union.

Mr. Holmes from the committee of claims, made a report adverse to the petition of Martha Strong, in which the house concurred

On motion of Mr. D. Williams resolved that the committee of commerce and manufactures be instructed to enquire into the expediency of rebuilding the Light House on North Island, and fixing buoys in Winway bay, and that they have leave to report by bill or otherwise.

On motion of Mr. Mac Creery sundry petition presented the last session, relative to new arrangements respecting the port of Nassamoy, were referred to the committee of commerce and manufactures.

Mr. J. Clay presented a petition from sundry patentees, praying for an extension of the periods for which they have patent rights;

Which was referred to Messrs. J. Clay, Jones, Livingston, Alexander and Elmer.

On motion of Mr. Stanton the petition of Edmund Briggs was referred to the committee of claims.

On motion of Mr. Stanton resolved that a committee be appointed to enquire whether any, and if any, what description of claims against the United States, are barred by the statute of limitations, which in reason and justice ought to be provided for by law, and that the said committee have leave to report by bill or otherwise.

Referred to a committee of seventeen members.

On motion of Mr. Dana the memorials of Moses Tryon, and Richard Law junior, were referred to the committee of claims.

Committees appointed in the house of representatives.

Committee on the Mississippi territory memorial, Messrs. T. M. Randolph, Baltimore, Taggart, Wickes and Hamilton.

SENATE UNITED STATES.

DECEMBER 9, 1806.

The bill from the house of representatives, for suspending the operation of the non-importation law, was referred to a select committee, consisting of Messrs. Giles, Mitchill and Baldwin.

DECEMBER 10.

The bill which had yesterday been reported without amendment by the select committee, was considered as in committee of the whole house, when Mr. Mitchill proposed a new section to the bill, empowering the president to give a further suspension to the law beyond the 30th June 1807, until the 31st of December, if in his opinion the public interest should require it. On this the bill with the amendment was recommitted.

DECEMBER 11.

Mr. Giles reported the bill with the new section, and another amendment; and Mr. Mitchill's proposition being thus incorporated into the bill, the whole was ordered to be printed.

COLONEL BURR
BEFORE
THE FEDERAL COURT.

FRANKFORT, Nov. 16.

WEDNESDAY, Nov 12, 1806.

The public mind, was perhaps never excited in a greater degree, than by the expectation of the events of this day. An unusual concourse of people had assembled from Lexington, and various other places in order to be present at the important fate of the late vice president of the United States. The charges were of such a magnitude, that even had they been against any common individual, they were well calculated to excite public interest.

After the opening of the court the deputy marshall proceeded to call over the names of the jury, when one of them, viz. captain Apperson was absent.——The public attorney being out of court, the judge ordered his attendance, to inform him of the circumstance. On the attorney's entering the court he informed the judge that owing to the non attendance of a most material witness, viz. Mr. Davis Floyd, he would be under the necessity of postponing this very material investigaton for the present. His honor judge Innes then discharged the jury.

A few minutes after their discharge, colonel Burr, entered, attended by Henry Clay and John Allen, Esqrs. his counsel. —He rose and addressing himself to the court expressed both his surprise and regret, that the grand jury which had been called for the purpose of investigating his conduct, should have been discharged so precipitately; and requested to know the cause of the postponement of the proposed investigation. Mr. Davies rose in reply and briefly stated, that the absence of Mr. Floyd, compelled him to postpone his proceedings; that it was true he could have entered into an investigation of several of the charges by the other witnesses, but the evidence of Mr. Floyd was essentially necessary in order to connect them together —Col. Burr rose again and expressed a desire it should be expressly understood that every exertion had been used in his power to compell the attendance of witnesses, and wished if Mr. Davies could inform him of the cause of the absence of Mr. Floyd. Mr. Davies stated that on Saturday he had been informed by Mr. Clay, that if there were any of the witnesses over whom col. Burr had any influence, that he would exert every endeavor to bring them forward; but he declined giving Mr. Clay any names conceiving that the process issued by the court was sufficient for that purpose. Col. Burr rose again and expressed a desire that the cause of the postponement should be entered upon record; and the reason of the absence of Mr. Floyd should be known To this, Mr. Davies agreed, and observed, that as to the absence of Mr. Floyd, the marshal who had been after him, informed him it was occasioned by his being a member of the legislature of the Indiana territory; and that he had set out to attend that legislative body about ten days ago.

Col. Burr then addressed himself to the court, and requested that the citizens of the state, should dismiss their apprehensions for the present; and hoped that they would remain neuter, nor suffer their minds to be biassed to his prejudice, until the investigation was made.

The deportment of col. Burr, as usual, was manly and dignified. It is true his constitution appears to have suffered considerably within these few years; and the many misfortunes in which he has been involved, have evidently left the traces of care and anxiety deeply impressed upon his features. His eye, however, retains all its natural penetration and acuteness; but the bland and captivating serenity which his countenance formerly displayed, appears to be exchanged for a deep and thoughtful melancholy.

The followirg is a list of the names of the witnesses, who were summoned and attended; to which is subjoined a copy of the last order of the court in this important case:

Samuel N. Luckett, Jefferson.
William Fleckner, Jefferson.
John Jordan, jun. Fayette.
Thomas B. Reed, Mercer.
Thomas B. Davis, Indiana territory.
Thomas Bodley Fayette.
Jesse Bledsoe, Fayette.
Charles Lynch, Shelby,
Benjamin Sebastian, Jefferson.
John Brown, Franklin.
John Adair, Mercer.

The grand jury empanelled and sworn to enquire, &c. on the third day of this term, and who were adjourned over to this day, being called, appeared in court agreeable to adjournment.

And thereupon came also the attorney for the United States, and suggested to the court, that although all the witnesses actually summoned on behalf of the United States attended, yet he could not now proceed on the enquiry intended for the grand jury; because Davis Floyd, a witness on behalf of the United States, for whom the marshal had been sent with a subpœna to Jeffersonville, his usual residence, could not be had during the session of the Indiana legislature, now in session, of which he was a member, and that his attendance was indispensible.

It is thereupon ordered that the grand jury be discharged, &c.

(A Copy.) Atteste,
THOS. TUNSTALL, C. K. D. C.

On this extraordinary proceeding, we are all aware, that the field of conjecture will be travelled in every direction by the curious reader and inquisitive politician. With ourselves we confess, it has excited neither astonishment or surprise, being, as we before mentioned, well informed on the subject eighteen months ago. This was the business which we proposed to unfold under the head of Miranda's expedition. That expedition was only a very inferior part of the scheme, and Miranda himself, an inferior agent in the plan. From the steps which have been taken by the public attorney, we now deem it improper to enter into a detail of this conspiracy, being assured that he is possessed of all the information of which we are; and that he is a much more proper instrument than the editors of a newspaper, to prevent its accomplishment.

Respecting the defeat or success of this project of colonel Burr, we are, however, still dubious: we know his powers are great; his intrigues are incalculable; his confidents many, and his designs so well organised, that a spirited and prompt decision on the part of the government of the union, can alone defeat them.

Whether or not the necessary measures will be taken by the public executive, we know not; but we are confident that such alone will secure the peace of the western country, and the happiness of the Atlantic states.

We observed in the first number of the Western World, that unless a conspiracy of the nature of that described by the public attorney, were in agitation, that the history of the Kentucky Spanish association would for us have been buried in oblivion. Our principal view in narrating it, was to illustrate the present scheme of col. Burr, and to shew that the design of forming a separate and distinct government in the west, had been a continued project of 20 years standing. A number of feeble attempts have been made in the Kentucky Gazettes, to impress the public with a belief, that the conspiracy at present in agitation, was a creature of the editors of the Western World. The same idea has also been re-echoed by several of the servile prints in the Atlantic states; but the affidavit of the public attorney will at least prove that it was no fabrication of ours It ought also to be observed, that the cause of col. Burr's trial for high misdemeanors not proceeding, was the absence of the most material witness, and not want of proof. Upon the return of this witness, we imagine a motion will be made by the federal attorney, for a renewal of the process.

The project of col. Burr, is doubtless of the most extensive nature, and if accomplished, will affect not only the interest of the western country, but of the known world. A revolution in the Spanish provinces of North America, will speedily when aided by Miranda, lead to one in South America, and the whole along with the western states of the union, organised into one empire, headed by a man of the enterprise and talents of col. Burr, will present a phenomenon in the political history of the globe perhaps only equalled by the modern empire of France.

With a certain belief of the advanced progress which is already made towards the accomplishment of this immense revolution; we cannot but view with the most melancholy sensations, the growing popularity of col. Burr in the western country and particularly in Kentucky. Will it be believed by our fellow citizens in the Atlantic states, that notwithstanding the known character of Burr for intrigue, and the solemn affidavit of the federal attorney as to his machinations, that he is courted and regarded in Frankfort and Lexington more in the capacity of a supernatural being, than a wandering conspirator? But such is the infatuation which at present unhappily blinds many of our ruling and respectable men.

So the event what it may, it shall ever be a gratifying consolation with us, that we had sufficient confidence, altho' seated in the midst of the emissaries of this man, to sound before it was too late the tocsin of danger to our fellow-citizens. We have done our duty—the federal attorney has done his: It belongs to the public executive to discharge theirs, and save their country from the impending destruction.

Proclamation of Bonaparte, addressed to the Saxons.

SAXONS!

The Prussians have seized upon your territory. I step forward for its deliverance. They have forcibly broken the ties which united your troops, and attached them to your army. You have to shed your blood for interests which are not only alien but hostile to yours My armies were on the point of leaving Germany, when your territory was violated, they shall return to France as soon as Prussia acknowledges your independence, and renounces the designs which she formed against you.

Saxons! Your prince had, until this moment, declined to form alliances which are so repugnant to his duties; if he has since consented to them, it has only been forcibly occasioned by the invasion of the Prussians.

I was deaf to the repeated provocations which Prussia gave to my people; I was deaf to them as long as she confined her armaments within her own boundaries; and my minister did not leave Berlin until she had violated your land.

Saxons! Your fate is in your own hands —Would you hesitate between those who subdued you, and those who are willing to protect you? My victories will insure the existence and independence of your prince. The victories of Prussia will lay everlasting fetters on you. To-morrow they will demand the Lausitz, and the next day the banks of the Elbe. But what do I say? Have they not already demanded every thing? Have they not for a long time past endeavored to force your prince to acknowledge a sovereignty which, if submitted to, would erase you from the rank of nations.

Your independence, your constitution and your liberty, would then only consist in remembrance; and the shadows of your ancestors, of the brave Saxons, would be disgraced, by your being, without resistance, cast into slavery which has been so long premeditated, and by your country being degraded so low, as to constitute a Prussian province.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 15.

On a perusal of the London papers by the ship Eugenia, we find but few articles of moment. The following are somewhat interesting. New-York Gazette.

It appears from a London paper of the 21st of October, that Capt. Baker, in the Phoenix frigate, stood close into Concarneau Bay, for the purpose of reconnoitering the state of Jerome Bonaparte's late ship, the Veteran, of 84 guns, when he found her completely bilged, and no prospect of getting her off.

A London paper says, "Some difficulty has we understand occurred, to delay the intended court-marshal on Capt. Whitby, of the Leander, on the charges urged by the American government.—It appears that Captain Whitby was not on board when the shot was fired which killed Pearce, but was at dinner on board the Cambrian."

The Spanish fleet of 12 sail of the line, it appears on the 25th and 30th of September, made demonstration of putting to sea, but on the appearance of Lord Collingwood's squadron, they immediately retired to the inner harbor of Cadiz.

On the 14th of October, the French frigate La Salamandre, moored off Guernsey, was destroyed by a small squadron of British men of war. The Constance of 20 guns got ashore during the action. Captain Burrowes was killed.

The French ship Regulus, of 80 guns, Commodore L'Hermite, arrived at Brest on the 3d of October, after having been chased by most of the channel fleet.

A commercial gentleman has politely favored the editor with the following extract of a letter dated, Amsterdam Oct. 28, 1806. (Balt. Amer.)

Since I wrote you last strange events have occurred; the war has terminated in its commencement! The first serious action that has been fought, has decided, not the campaign only, but the fate of a kingdom, and by the last accounts the plenipo's are at Berlin for the purpose of negociating peace. The Prussian army is destroyed and what will be the result heaven alone knows. I shall endeavor to scrape together a few papers for this conveyance; and in the meanwhile have only to add that commerce is at a stand again, every person looking to a general peace, for myself I do not believe such an event likely, or if it does take place I cannot think it will prove durable. I look to another coalition, a coalition more powerful than any of the former, from each of the parties having felt the scourge of the gigantic power that now domineers upon the continent.

ATTENTION!

Richard Lee & Son,

Request those persons who value their health to observe, that

NICHOLAS HINGSTON,

At his China, Glass, Queen's-Ware and Seed Store, Fairfax street, facing Messrs. Rickett's and Newton's,

Is appointed their agent for Alexandria,

AND HAS JUST RECEIVED,

A LARGE SUPPLY OF

Patent and Family Medicines,

From their Medicine Warehouse,

BALTIMORE.

THE above Richard Lee and Son is father and brother to the deceased Richard Lee, of New York, and have prepared those valuable medicines for upwards of seven years, from the original receipts now in our possession. This public notice is rendered necessary by imitations of them having been lately advertised for sale in New York, Philadelphia, and other places. Effectually to counteract such unprincipled attempts we wish the public to be informed, that the genuine medicines are only prepared by Richard Lee and Son, Baltimore, and sold by Nicholas Hingston, Alexandria—Messrs. Rapine, Conrad and Co. Capitol Hill, Washington—Ninian Magruder, druggist, Georgetown, and no where else in the above places. N. B. The signature of Richard Lee and Son is on the outside wrappers, without which, none are genuine.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers is recommended

Lee's Anti-Bilious Pills,

Prepared by Richard Lee and Son, Baltimore.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile, and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—produce a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colds, which are often of fatal consequences—those never fails to remove a cold, if taken on its first appearance. They are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate. They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured, and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Lee's genuine Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pains in the face and neck, &c.

Lee's infallible Ague and Fever Drops,

For the cure of Agues, remittent and intermittent Fever

Thousands can testify of their being cured by these drops, after the bark and every other medicine have proved ineffectual. Not one in a hundred has had occasion to take more than one, and numbers not half a bottle.

These drops are particularly recommended to the inhabitants of low marshy countries, where the worst sort of agues generally prevail; which, unless early attended to, and speedily removed, injure the constitution exceedingly, bring on dropsies, putrid fevers, and a variety of complaints of a most dangerous & alarming nature. Many other medicines are daily offered to the public for the cure of this disorder, which upon trial have been found either dangerous or useless. The bark is the usual remedy made use of; but being a very nauseous medicine, and seldom taken in sufficient quantity, it very often fails; children and those who have weak stomachs, are frequently lost for want of a more easy and pleasant remedy.

Lee's Grand Restorative,

Is confidently recommended as an invaluable medicide for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints which result from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavorable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent intoxication, or any other destructive intemperance, the unskilful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period, of lifebad lyings in, &c.

LEE'S ELIXER,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, astmas, sore throats, and approaching consumptions. To parents who may have children afflicted with the hooping cough,

This discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorder, to which children are liable; the Elixer is so perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small, that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Lee's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have, within six years past, cured upwards of one hundred thousand persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

Lee's Sovereign Ointment for the Itch,

Which is warranted an infallible remedy at one application, and may be used with the most perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and is not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends other remedies.

Dr. Larow's Indian Vegetable Specific,

For the cure of Venereal complaints.

The experience of several thousands who have been cured by this medicine (a great proportion of them, after the skill of eminent physicians had proved ineffectual) demonstrates its efficacy in expelling the virus, however deeply rooted in the constitution, and in counteracting those dreadful effects which often result from the improper use of mercury.

The mildness of the Vegetable Specific, is equal to its surprising efficacy; its operation is so gentle that it is given to patients in a state of pregnancy, with the utmost safety, and performs a cure without disturbing the system or producing any of those disagreeable effects inseperable from the common remedies.

With the medicine is given a description of symptoms which obtain in every stage of the disease, with copious directions for their treatment, so as to accomplish a perfect cure in the shortest time, and with the least inconvenience possible.

EYE WATER,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or accident.

TOOTH ACHE DROPS,

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

LEE'S CORN PLAISTER,

An infallible remedy for speedily removing corns, root and branch, without giving pain.

DAMASK LIP SALVE.

Restorative Powder for the Teeth & Gums

THE ANODYNE ELIXIR,

For the cure of all kinds of head-ache.

CAUTION!

THE Widow of the late Richard Lee, junior, respectfully cautions the public against the compositions of Richard Lee and Son, advertised in this paper as being prepared from the original recipes, &c. &c. [See their advertisement]—The facts are; that the only and original recipes are in possession of the subscriber; that R. L. and Son, (both mechanics) were employed, with other persons, in the laboratory of the deceased; that, within a few months, these two persons, on a joint account, in Baltimore; and one other person on his own account, in New-York; have commenced making imitations of our medicines; each, pretending to prepare the only genuine articles—But R. L. and Son have advanced a step beyond their cotemporary, having had the meanness and effrontery to solicit the agents of the subscriber to take their compositions for sale, hoping thereby the better to deceive the unwary. Lest further proof of what these persons are capable of, the public are respectfully informed also, that the "unprincipled attempts" mentioned in R. L. and Sons advertisement, are utterly destitute of truth, no person in either of the places stated, or any where else, have conceived it worth while to imitate their imitations; which have been in existence but a few months; and more, the words are not theirs, being a copy of my advertisement to caution the public against R. L. and Son and the other imitator before mentioned.

That these persons have been capable of such conduct towards the Widow of their Relative, [whose employ had long yielded them a livelihood] and that they have compelled her to expose it, is a source of much regret, but she conceives the public as well as her own and her childrens interest demand this explanation.

The subscriber admits that the Medicines have been wrapt, sealed, &c. by R. L. and Son, and others, under the direction of her Husband, and supposes they remember the drugs, of which they were composed, but absolutely denies that they are acquainted with the necessary proportions; the late proprietor being extremely tenacious of the Recipes which he kept locked up in his private desk, and has often expressed his determination to keep them secret.

The subscriber informs the public, that the whole of the large stock of prepared Medicines on hand and all the apparatus for preparing them, were purchased for her, by her friends at the late sale of her Husband's moveable property, and assures them the several articles shall be faithfully prepared from the Recipes, by competent persons, when it again becomes necessary.

HANNAH LEE,
Widow and Administratrix of
Richard Lee, jr.

No. 56, Maiden Lane, New-York.

The public will take particular notice that the following Genuine Medicines are sold as usual in Alexandria, only, by Mr. James Kennedy, sen. at his store in King-street, and by Doctor John Ott, George-Town.

Dr. Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, well known to be the only safe and infallible remedy.

Dr. Hamilton's Grand Restorative for debilitated constitutions.

Dr. Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

Dr. Hamilton's Vegetable Ointment for the Itch—a certain cure, by once using.

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

Infallible Ague Drops.

Genuine Persian Lotion, for removing cutaneous blemishes, and improving the complexion.

Indian Vegetable Specific, in high repute for the cure of a certain nameless disease.

Damask Lip Salve.

Restorative Tooth Powder.

Hahn's German Corn Plaister.

Hahn's Eye Water, an excellent and safe remedy.

Tooth-ache Drops.

November 26.

Caution versus "Caution."

IN this paper, under the head of "CAUTION" the Widow of the late R. Lee, jun. has made an insidious attempt to injure the reputation which the medicines prepared by R. Lee and Son have so justly acquired by their efficacy, as have been certified by the most respectable citizens of different sections of the United States.

She states as a fact that the only and original recipes are in her possession," and that "we, both mechanics (horrible!) were employed in the laboratory of the deceased"—and, "that within a few months we have commenced making imitations of the widow's medicines,"

As far as relates to the original recipes, we will only refer the reader to the affidavits of Richard Lee, senior, and of Mr. Hanna, of the house of Warner and Hanna, their former agents in Baltimore, which are hereunto annexed. Our being mechanics has nothing to do with the matter in dispute; we only contend that our medicines are genuine and prepared from the original recipes of R. Lee, junior.

She says we have within a "few months commenced making imitations."——No, we have had a practical knowledge of the business for upwards of seven years, and the public are capable of judging of that time and the trifling deviation from truth made by Hannah, when she so generously informs the public of a few months experience.

We are accused of having solicited her agents to take our compositions for sale. To say the least this assertion is of the same stamp with that wherein she states "she had taken the agency from Warner and Hanna." The fact is that her former agents well knew that our preparations were genuine; they therefore relinquished the agency and recommended Mr. James Hanna, her present agent, as a fit person to continue the sale of her medicines in Baltimore. The Widow admits that the medicines have been wrapt and sealed, &c. by us, under the directions of her husband, and supposes we remember the drugs, but denies our knowledge of the necessary proportions, and that her husband was so extremely tenacious of the recipes, that he kept them locked up in his private desk.—It is an absolute fact that he never had such an article as a private desk on the premises—but on the contrary they were kept in a common till or drawer, to which we had as free access as R. Lee, jun. himself.

All the medicines prepared by R. Lee and Son, bear their own names, for the purpose of distinguishing them from any others that may be offered for sale by any other person.—Let the public make but one experiment with our genuine medicines and those prepared by her minions, and we are confident the result will be in favor of those bearing the signature of Richard Lee and Son.

City of Baltimore.

Personally appeared before me the subscriber, one of the justices of the peace of Baltimore county, Richard Lee, senior, who being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, deposeth and saith, that those papers now in the possession of Richard Lee, senior, are receipts given under him by Richard Lee, jun. for the purpose of preparing different kinds of medicines, which were sold under the names of Hamilton, Hahn, &c. &c.

December 4.

On application to me by Michael Lee, I have deemed proper in justice to Richard Lee and Son, to give the following testimony.

During the sickness of 1800, Richard Lee, jun. deceased, rented a part of my front dwelling with a back building, for the use of his brother Michael Lee, and in which he was to prepare medicines. While he resided at my house, I had free access to the building, in which I found the said Michael Lee constantly at work, weighing drugs and preparing medicines of different kinds. Never saw Richard Lee, jun. do any thing belonging to the business, either in giving directions or any other matter belonging thereto—in fact Michael Lee appeared to be attentive, that his brother did not conceive it necessary.

Given under my hand, this 12th. day of Sept. 1806.

JOHN ALLEN.

I hereby certify, that Richard Lee, jun. deceased, rented a dwelling and store from me in Baltimore street, between Frederick and Gay streets, which he occupied upwards of two years. I had workmen employed at said house and the one adjoining for several months, which required my presence there repeatedly throughout the day. I have sat in Richard Lee, junr's. laboratory and store, for several hours at a time, while Richard Lee, sen. and Michael Lee, his son, were employed in weighing out drugs, and mixing and compounding various kinds of medicines—at other times I have seen them distilling, filling and sealing phials with different medicines, and there was no other persons employed in preparing any for the above period. I never to the best of my recollection, saw Richard Lee, jun. deceased, interfere with the business in any respect.

Given under my hand, this 15th day of Sept. 1806.

CHARLES MYERS

VALUABLE LANDS,

To be Sold very Cheap.

I WISH to sell my Mill Tract of Land, situate on Back-Lick and Indian-Runs, about six miles from the town of Alexandria; containing about eleven hundred acres. On this tract are two plantations besides the mill farm—on the latter there is a very good mill, in which are one pair of burr, and one pair of cullen stones, with elevators, &c. complete for merchant work—a distillery convenient to the mill, with four stills and every necessary utensil in complete order—a dwelling-house, kitchen, barn, with stables under it to accommodate 20 stalls, with every other out house requisite on a farm—a very good garden, an orchard of about 2500 trees of the choicest fruits this country can afford. There is about 300 or 400 acres of the tract cleared, the remainder in woods and a great part of it heavily timbered; about 30 or 40 acres of meadow, and nearly 300 acres more may be made on the bottoms adjoining the two runs.

ALSO,

One other tract of one hundred acres, about two miles from Alexandria, part of the Cliesh Tract, and adjoining the lands of Messieurs John C. Herbert, Robert Patton, and John Richter, the Mount-Vernon road running through it. This tract is mostly in woods, and conveniently situated for country seats. If these lands should be sold at private sale, (which I would prefer) I will take in payment, if more convenient to the purchasers, stock of any of the banks from Richmond to New-York, or any kind of stock of the United States.

If they are not sold before Friday the first day of May next, the Mill Tract will, on that day, be sold at public auction, to the highest bidder—and on the following day the Cliesh Lands will be sold in like manner. The Mill Tract will be divided into three or four farms and sold subject to a lease of four and an half years from the first day of July last. The Cliesh Tract will be divided into lots of 10 or 20 acres each. If sold at public auction the terms will be made known on the days of sale.
